Company Description

Tesoro Logistics is a Master Limited Partnership that gathers, transports, and stores crude oil and distributes, transports, and stores refined products. Its assets consist of a crude oil gathering system in the Bakken Shale/Williston Basin area, eight refined products terminals, and a crude oil and refined products storage facility and five related short-haul pipelines.

Distribution Growth Story Continues

Summary

Tesoro Logistics LP (TLLP) announced its first quarter distribution, which was above our forecast. We believe Tesoro will be among the leaders in distribution growth over the next several years, including estimated 2013 distribution growth at 15.3%. In addition, the partnership should benefit from its organic growth capital spending and potential dropdown acquisitions. We have a Buy rating on Tesoro's units and a $39/unit price target.

Key Points

- Distribution. Tesoro announced a distribution of $0.3775/unit ($1.51/unit annualized) for the first quarter of 2012. The distribution will be paid May 14, 2012, to all unitholders of record on May 4, 2012. The distribution represents a 4.1% increase over the $0.3625/unit ($1.45/unit annualized) for the fourth quarter of 2011.
- Our take. The distribution was above our estimate. We believe Tesoro will be able to grow its operations through dropdown acquisitions and potentially benefit from Tesoro Corporation's (TSO-NR) desire to expand its logistics asset base. The partnership could also benefit from undertaking organic growth projects and joint acquisitions with Tesoro Corporation. We believe Tesoro has various opportunities for growth that should enable it to increase its distribution.
- Distribution estimates. We are increasing our 2012 distribution estimate to $1.60/unit from $1.575/unit and increasing our 2013 distribution estimate to $1.845/unit from $1.84/unit. Our estimates provide a 15.3% growth rate in 2013. This compares quite favorably to the 6.9% estimated average growth in 2013 for liquids-based partnerships under our coverage. Our distributable cash flow estimates are $2.10/unit for 2012 and $2.78/unit in 2013, which equates to coverage ratios of 1.3x and 1.5x, respectively.
- Earnings. Tesoro plans to release its earnings for the first quarter 2012 after the market closes on May 7, 2012. The partnership will hold a conference call regarding first quarter results on May 8, 2012, at 8:30 a.m. EST (7:30 a.m. CST). Tesoro recently announced the completion of the acquisition of the Martinez crude oil terminal, which should positively impact earnings starting in the second quarter.
- Investment thesis. We believe Tesoro will be among the leaders in distribution growth over the next several years, including estimated 2013 distribution growth at 15.3%. In addition, the partnership should benefit from its organic growth capital spending and potential dropdown acquisitions. The partnership's assets are well-postioned to take advantage of growing production from the Bakken Shale.
